

Client Success with EHP

Your Client Success Manager is dedicated to helping you grow your business by asking the right questions, finding the best solutions, and scaling your Amazon business. Providing expert advice, product best practices, and key industry insights, your consultant ensures you see maximum value from EHP

Josh
EHP Consultant, Tampa

Jon Doogan, President of Aculief

“ Josh and his team deliver on all levels continuously to manage our various selling platforms. They have increased our revenues and customer satisfaction has soared. EHP allows us to focus on core business growth and we are achieving great success together. ”

Onboard & Deployment

Building out a product launch plan with specific steps to get your account up and running as quickly as possible.

Long-Term Strategy

Creating actionable Long-Term steps to ensure your business gets the most value from your online products and brand.

Dedicated Assistance

Offering daily account audits, customer service, and inventory management, providing a great customer experience with business solutions that are tailored to your needs.

Ongoing Optimization

Touchpoints to discuss account performance, best practices and recommendation, to help you build a stronger brand and better customer retention.

